Details

Walter Perego (1925-2015) was an American artist acclaimed for his Avant Garde style. He is also known for his work at Disney, Hanna-Barbera and Format Films during the mid-20th century. His dedication, creativity and contributions to animation while at Disney earned Perego the honor of being inducted into the Disney Legends roster in 2008.

This newly reframed drawing of a motorcyclist is done in charcoal, ink and pencil on paper and is from his later body of work.
